- The vehicle is supplied with a full tank of fuel and must be returned with a full tank of fuel. If the vehicle is returned without a full tank of fuel, the hirer is liable for the cost of the refuelling, plus a fee of $15.000.

10. Traffic infringements and fines

- All traffic infringements and fines (including speeding, parking, freedom camping and toll road infringements) are the liability of the hirer. The hirer authorizes Monkey Adventure to charge the hirer's credit or debit card the cost of the infringement, any online payment fees, plus a processing fee. In the event notification for all infringement notices or fines received by monkey Adventure from a relevant authority, the processing fee is $25.000 per each offence. This procedure can take up to 15 months.

11. Guarantee

- The hirer must leave a guarantee of money (according amounts 12.1) to ensure payments, any damage or breach of this agreement.

- The hirer is always responsible for all damage to the vehicle, regardless of who is at fault. This liability is limited to the value of the deductible specified in Article 12.1 below.
- If liability of a third party claim, Monkey Adventure will refund the charges made to hirer for damages, in all cases as it may be indemnified by the guilty third vehicle damage, only when approved and this canceled the total damage the third party responsible for the damage. As turn what was agreed in this agreement. Please note that third party claims can take many months to resolve. The hirer is liable for all damages to a third party vehicle and/or property if the hirer is at fault.
- Damage cover is available subject to the terms of our Vehicle Rental Agreement. This means that we indemnify renters against loss and damage that renters sustain as a result of an incident whilst a permitted driver is driving the rented Monkey Adventures vehicle. However, we will only do this if you have complied with the terms of our Vehicle Rental Agreement and the EXCLUSIONS listed in this document and you have paid the applicable amounts set out above within the timeframes set out in the Hirer Vehicle Rental Agreement.
- Damages costs are mentioned as a reference at the end of this document.

12. Excess reduction options

- The hire includes a basic liability insurance. This insurance is not waivable. Excludes fines for traffic violations and any indirect damage to the property of others. Injuries or deaths caused to third parties is only covered by the national compulsory insurance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the basic insurance and plus not cover broken windscreens, tires and any damages resulting from driving while intoxicated, participation in races or contests of any kind, volunteers or malicious damage to the vehicle and those that are the result of gross negligence. Nor cover theft if the hirer is unable to present the original keys of the vehicle.
 - DEDUCTIBLE: The basic insurance is subject to a deductible of $ 1.150.000.- for two wheel drive vehicle and $ 1.450.000.- for vehicle four-wheel drive.

- To use the vehicle to carry animals, excluding registered dogs.
- To use the vehicle on unfit roads for the car.
- To start or drive a vehicle that has been involved in an accident, damaged by rollover, water submersion or any other failure or inconvenience without previous and written permission from Monkey Adventures.
- Any damage/loss resultant from theft/fire or break-ins. Monkey Adventures does not offer any compensation for loss of any personal items.
- Any damage due to vehicle use in contravention of item "Hirer's responsibility"
- Drivers not identified on this Car Rental Agreement and/or drivers those have a license that has been cancelled or suspended and/or drivers who have a license that is classified as a learners or provisional license.
- Any damage caused to the vehicle due to the use of inappropriate snow chains
- For any cost associated with the incorrect use of fuel (fuel being diesel or petrol), this includes Bio Diesel which should not be used, water, other contamination of fuel or whatever liquid different from the appropriate fuel.

13. Accidents

- The hirer will be responsible for all associated costs in retrieving, storing and recovering the vehicle to the agreed rental location irrespective of whether the accident is the hirer's fault or a third party. This cost is not covered under any insurance excess options and is in addition to respective insurance option excess levels.
- In the event that the costs of all parties involved in the accident and liability is not confirmed before drop off of the vehicle the hirer will be charged the full excess under the rental agreement. The hirer will be refunded any excess payment following confirmation of costs and liability.
- Sometimes due to unforeseen circumstances (crash, vehicle theft, etc.), Monkey Adventures is unable to supply the vehicle requested. Monkey adventures will take no responsibility if the booked vehicle is not physically present in the depot and therefore not available due to external conditions beyond our control. We will always endeavour to supply a vehicle of similar quality and characteristics.

- If an exchange vehicle is required it is the hirer's responsibility, and at their cost, to return to the Monkey Adventures depot to collect the exchange vehicle.
- Prior to the collection of an exchange vehicle the daily rate will still apply and Monkey Adventures accepts no liability for loss of travel days and associated costs.
- Monkey Adventures cannot guarantee an exchange vehicle following an accident. Any exchange vehicle may take up to three (3) days to be available and may not be an identical vehicle. This is irrespective of whether the hirer or third party is at fault.
- In the event of an exchange vehicle being required, any insurance excess options are not transferable to the exchange vehicle.
- If an exchange vehicle is not required by the hirer no refund for the unused portion of the hire is applicable.
- What to do in case of accident:
 - Turn on your vehicle's hazard lights and use warning triangles (auxiliary kit)
 - Call to Monkey Adventures and we will help you fix the situation
 - If there are others cars involved, it is very important to write down the following info:
 - Driver's name + Driver's ID number (in Chile, called RUT)
 - Plate number (in Chile, called REGO)
 - If the other car has an insurance: write down the insurance company' name
 - Call the police (133) or go to the nearest police office to do an "incident statement" (In Chile, called "constancia")
 - Note: It is really important to go directly to the police otherwise, it is assumed that you were driving under alcohol effects and the insurance will not cover the damages.
 - Take pictures of all damages and send them to Monkey Adventures

14. Mechanical faults

- The hirer shall take all reasonable care to ensure that the vehicle is properly checked and maintained during the hire period. This shall include daily checks of the oil, water and tyre pressures.
- Mechanical breakdowns must be reported to Monkey Adventure as soon as possible in order to give Monkey Adventure the opportunity to rectify the issues during the hire. In order to facilitate on-road repairs, Monkey Adventures may require the hirer to take the vehicle to an approved repairer.
- The hirer is not entitled to any refund unless Monkey Adventures has been advised of the issue, and has been given the opportunity to rectify the situation.
- A refund can be requested from Monkey Adventures if a breakdown has directly caused a delay in travel in one location of 48 hours or more.
- For all repairs, Monkey Adventures will need to be informed and confirm the repair in advance. Repair will be reimbursed if the Hirer was not responsible for the damage. All the respective statements, including invoices and bills, must be submitted for any repair within maximum 48 hours after drop-off or the claim will not be paid. Subject to the terms of the guarantee, the Hirer will pay for the costs of repairing or replacing what had been damaged during the Rental Term.

- Monkey Adventure is not liable for any delays in rectifying a situation caused by a breakdown occurring on a weekend or public holiday.
- If the vehicle is un-drivable after an accident and the Hirer would like to have a replacement vehicle, it will be subject to time, distance and availability. In any case, the Hirer must make his/her own way (at the Hirer's expense) to Monkey Adventures branch. To access to the replacement vehicle the Hirer should agrees the corresponding Car Rental Agreement involving the payment of a new rental and a new vehicle Guarantee Fund will be required and this amount is determined by Excess Reduction options.

15. Mechanical failure on the road.

- In case of failure, turn on the emergency lights of the vehicle, use warning triangles (auxiliary equipment), placed reflective vest emergency and call our support number to help resolve the situation.
- Please note that this does not cover failure resulting from the hirer's actions or inactions, which includes, but is not limited to, the following:
